Need to Know

You do not need to use a Claims Management Company (CMC) or a law firm to deal with your Claim. You can complain directly to the Lender, if unsuccessful with the Lender, then to the Claims Management Ombudsman Service (FOS) or via the FCA's consumer redress scheme for free. Not all consumers will be eligible for compensation. <https://www.fca.org.uk/news/statements/fca-confirms-motor-finance-redress-scheme>.

Following a consultation launched in October 2025, the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) has confirmed it will go ahead with a scheme to compensate some car finance customers who were treated unfairly.

The scheme has now been split into two periods:

- 6 April 2007 to 31 March 2014
- 1 April 2014 to 1 November 2024

The earlier period will be dealt with separately. If it's challenged, this will not delay compensation for customers with agreements from April 2014 onwards.
